Bravo! is the official newsletter of the Rochester Music Guild. It is published to inform members and friends about our activities, which support and encourage music, music, music...

Letter From Our President

Winter greetings! I am pleased to report that Rochester Music Guild and the mission it supports is thriving. Record membership contributions, successful fund raising events, and grants are making it possible for us to continue our support for excellence in the musical arts, and to extend the educational component of our mission in 2016. This spring, we are excited to pilot a Rochester Music Guild Master Class series with two events in April - one for brass and one for woodwinds. We hope these are well attended, and become something we can build on. Look for more details, on page 4, in this newsletter and in subsequent correspondence.

Thank you for all that you do to make these accomplishments possible. It is so very gratifying to know this community supports fine music!

Alan Hansen, RMG President

Reminder:

Our membership year runs from July 1, 2015, through June 30, 2016.

The Rochester Music Guild welcomes all people who love music!

Herberger's Community Days
~ follow-up Report

We are very happy to report that the Herberger fundraiser, this past November, set a new record for us. Total sales were $2,545 and with expenses of $326.52 and a bonus from Herberger's of $612.48 (received in January 2016, $36.25 higher than last year), our net profit was $2,830.96. This was an all-time high and exceeded last year's event by $460. Of the total sold, $440 was in donations. The booklets, represented by these donations, were given to nonprofits to distribute to their clients.

Many, many thanks to all who helped with selling shifts - Barbara Eakins, Linda Edd, Alan Hansen, April Horne, Judy Kereakos, Lynne Kirklín, Katie Livingood, Margo Stich and Ella VanLaningham, with Judy having the most outstanding results on Saturday, 12-2, selling 45 booklets.

Thanks also to Alan Hansen, Joyce Wood and Ella VanLaningham who prepared the mailing to members. Finally, special thanks to Joyce Lewis who received and deposited the money mailed in and recorded the amount sold and the number of booklets returned. Most of all, thank you to all our members who generously supported the fundraiser and made donations.

For those who missed the outstanding 2015 Scholarship Winners' Recitals it may be viewed on the Rochester Music Guild youtube channel at: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WUlfZp_QX-Y and <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wI13KHIXjw8>

Garden of Note

As the days are getting longer, we're starting to think about those bulbs and perennials hidden under the snow. The good folks at Sargeants are really busy, getting ready to help you paint your yard and gardens with color. Once again, Sargeants is supporting the Rochester Music Guild with the Garden of Note voucher sale. Each voucher costs $25 and can be used to purchase $25 of garden plants and merchandise at Sargeants. The best part? $5 from each sale will be returned back to the Guild to "plow back" into growing local music! Voucher sales will launch March 12th at the Rochester Symphony Concert. If you do a lot of gardening, and have friends who do a lot of gardening, please consider being a sales coordinator. Our coordinators are the key to the success of this, our biggest fundraiser of the year. For more information, email garden@rochestermusicguild.org

Remembering past members:

The guild lost two longtime members recently. Guy Whitehead died Jan. 14, 2016. After being born and raised in Kentucky, Guy came joined Mayo Clinic staff in 1956 as an editor, serving in this position until retirement in 1984. He and his previously deceased wife, Almyra, had been dedicated and active member of RMG for many years. Alice Elizabeth "Betty" Sande passed away Jan. 10, 2016. She spent in life in North Dakota until attending Concordia College in Moorhead, MN and then University of MN where she received a master's in Library Science. She worked at the Rochester Public Library then in the Mayo Clinic library system (1972-1990). An appreciation for music was a gift she shared with others in the community.

Our free educational series, known as Lunch & Learn, features a variety of topics and musicians. These programs are seeing increased attendance in the past year. Bring your own lunch or RSVP in advance to purchase lunch. Membership dues provide the base for all of these activities.

SMILE for RMG if you shop at AMAZON

Rochester Music Guild (RMG) is a participating charitable organization for AmazonSmile. AmazonSmile is a program which shares a percentage of online sales from Amazon. If you, your kids or friends, shop online through Amazon, it is very easy to have those sales counted for RMG. Here's all you need to do:

1. Use web address smile.amazon.com instead of amazon.com whenever you do online shopping through Amazon. The price you pay will be exactly the same, but 0.5% of the sale will go to RMG.
2. The first time you go to smile.amazon.com, you will be asked to sign in to your amazon.com account. This is the same account you normally use when making Amazon purchases.
3. After signing in, you will be asked to choose the charitable organization for AmazonSmile to use. Enter Rochester Music Guild in the Search box and press Enter. You may see multiple similar organization names returned, like Rochester Symphony Guild, but select Rochester Music Guild.

That's all there is to it. Now any purchases you make through Amazon will generate a donation to Rochester Music Guild. But remember, you must make your purchases by starting at the smile.amazon.com web page.

REVOLUTIONS IN MUSICRochester Symphony Orchestra & Chorale

Saturday | Feb 6 | 7:30 pm

Sunday | Feb 7 | 2:00 pm

Lourdes High School

Jere Lantz, director and CEO, will lead the orchestra in "Revolutions in Music" concerts Feb. 6 and 7 at Lourdes High School. Programming includes pieces by Beethoven and Franz Liszt, as well as by contemporary composer Jennifer Higdon. Those familiar with the work of Beethoven can relate to this composer's accomplishments and works which, when composed, were viewed as "revolutionary music". The orchestra will honor his revolutionary ideas by playing the Symphony No. 3 ("Eroica"). Liszt, the Hungarian composer/pianist, revolutionized modern symphonic music with his so-called symphonic poems, of which the orchestra will perform "Les Preludes." At the time this was written (1854) it was something entirely new – "a new kind of music."

The concert opens with "Blue Cathedral" by Higdon, a composer who would not automatically be thought of as a revolutionary by some critics. Higdon's "Blue Cathedral" was written in reaction to the death of her brother. In the middle of writing this piece, her brother was dying of skin cancer. Jere Lantz director notes how she put her grief into the music. He adds, "The idea is to put her whole feeling about her brother, his death, where he might be now, and the mystery of that, into the music. That's what is revolutionary to me." Indeed, this promises to be an exciting concert you will not want to miss!

GLORIA!Rochester Symphony Orchestra & Chorale

Saturday | Mar 12 | 7:30 pm

Sunday | Mar 13 | 2:00 pm

Lourdes High School

The orchestra opens with Britten's opera for the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II and the RSO Chorale joins in for Vivaldi's most famous choral work and Poulenc's inauguration tribute to JFK. The concert ends with a brand new RSOC commission by Emmy Award-winning composer Garth Neustadter. Glory takes on all forms for this celebration of musical greatness.

New! Concert opportunity and master classes for aspiring, and accomplished, musicians of all ages and abilities.

Sunday, April 10th: Compass Rose Brass Ensemble presents a free concert from 2-3 pm followed by free individual workshops from 3-4 pm for musicians on trumpet, horn, trombone, and tuba/euphonium. Middle and High School students of all ages and ability who play a brass instrument are invited to attend as are adult musicians and teachers. All are encouraged to bring their instruments. Location to be determined.

Saturday, April 30th: The Rochester Music Guild and SEMYO will host master classes with five musicians from the Minnesota Orchestra. There will be a performance and demonstration, 10-10:45 am, followed by master classes from 11-noon on clarinet, oboe, bassoon, flute, and horn. Students, teachers, and hobbyists are encouraged to attend. Students interested in performing for the MN Orchestra musicians should check the Rochester Music Guild website after February 8th to apply. This event will be held at Century High School.
