Letter From Our President

Welcome to Rochester Music Guild's Fall Newsletter!

My name is Linda Edd, and I am delighted to be entrusted with the leadership of the Rochester Music Guild (RMG). Last year my role as President Elect allowed me to learn from our previous President and co-Presidents, as well as other members of our RMG Board. I have seen firsthand the extraordinary dedication and talent each board member brings to our organization.

As we enter into our 53rd year, I also want to express appreciation for all the work that our past and present board members, volunteers, and members have done to create and sustain such a vibrant organization in our community. Music has enriched the lives of many in our community and beyond. RMG is proud to continue our Mission: Dedicated to Music Appreciation, Education, and Performance – Today and Tomorrow.

I am excited for our wonderful and varied Lunch & Learn events! These free, noon-time program start off this year with the Band of Praise: A Traditional Dixieland Brass Band on Friday, September 30 (see p. 2) to be followed by the World-Renowned Violinist Midori on Friday, November 18 (see p. 5) and a sure to be fun Caroling with Choral Arts Ensemble Friday, December, 16. Details on scheduled Lunch & Learn events can also be found on our website. (see rochestermusicguild.org)

Continuing our Workshop series, that was initiated last year, we will have a Jazz Workshop with the WSU Faculty Jazz Combo on Sunday, October 9. A free public concert is performed prior to the workshop. Please come and enjoy!

RMG provides modest financial support for area musical organizations. Grant awards are made based on an assessment of educational, youth, and overall community impact. In May, 2016, RMG provided grants to 9 music organizations.

Perhaps the centerpiece of the Guild's work has been the Scholarship Competition. (2016 winners listed on p. 2). This event combines the elements of music appreciation, education, and performance, each reflecting a strong commitment to the future. The guild is blessed with having generous donors who have funded endowments from which scholarships are made.

RMG maintains a rich website featuring a calendar of music events, listings of non-profit music organizations, a directory of music instructors and information regarding our Scholarship Competition. (see rochestermusicguild.org)

Just a reminder: Our membership year runs from July 1, 2016, through June 30, 2017. If you haven't already done so, we urge you to renew your membership and invite others to join. Membership is the key to sustaining and expanding the work of the guild. RMG welcomes all people who love music!

Thank you for your continued support of the Rochester Music Guild. It is through your membership, donations, and fundraiser participation that we are able to accomplish our mission. Be well and create a joyful noise!

Garden of Note

Thank you to all who supported the Garden of Note sale this spring, including Sargent's Gardens. Based on the amount of vouchers sold, we're sure there were some splendid gardens throughout the community, including the homes of Music Guild members!

With the hard work of 21 volunteers, we were able to sell 1208 vouchers. The proceeds of the sales, combined with associated donations, brought in $6,014 to support local music. An additional $530 in donations brought our net to $6,570. This was a record-breaking final number for the guild.

The success of the sale is so dependent on the commitment of willing volunteer sellers. Please let us know if you would like to be on the seller contact list for next year's sale.

Scholarship News

The 52nd Annual Scholarship Competition was held April 16-17, 2016. Eighty two young musicians competed. The Winners' Recital was held May 6. All events were held at Christ United Methodist Church. Scholarships totaling $7,800 were awarded to the top three students in each category. In addition a $1500 music camp scholarship and three $150 scholarships to a senior from each of the public high schools (funded by the Carol and Sidney Suddendorf Scholarship and RMG). A grant we received, from the Southeast Minnesota Arts Council, helped fund this event.

Membership

Have you renewed your membership with Rochester Music Guild for 2016-2017? Have you invited a friend to join the organization? If the answer is no, there is still time.

The membership application can be clipped from page four of this newsletter or downloaded from our website, rochestermusicguild.org and mailed to RMG with your payment.

We are excited about the upcoming season and what we can do to provide support for music in the Rochester community. Our organization continues to provide both volunteers and financial support for the Rochester Symphony Orchestra and Chorale. Our annual scholarship competition awards multiple scholarships to area students. Additionally, we grant funds to non-profit organizations for the promotion of music appreciation through education and performance.

We sponsor a free educational series known as Lunch & Learn, featuring a variety of topics and musicians. For these programs, you can bring your own lunch or purchase lunch. You will also receive notices of special music events throughout our area.

Membership dues provide the base for all RMG activities. Please consider becoming a new member or renewing your membership which includes several perks, as listed below. Please share guild news and mission with others. Invite friends and neighbors to join Rochester Music Guild. Again, membership form can be found on page 4.

Website

Our online website provides a great resource for our members and the community. Our first webmaster was Dick O'Dell who set up our website as a volunteer in 2005 with the help of the MLT Group. He maintained it until Webmaster was added as a board position in 2007 and Richard Kiscaden took over. We kept the same basic structure until 2012 when a SEMAC grant enabled us to redo the website with the help of Mikell Ad & Design. At that time DeAnn Spencer became the webmaster.

Since the beginning, MLT Group has sponsored our website, donating the server space to host it. We pay them a small reimbursement for their out-of-pocket cost in re-registering our domain name. We thank MLT Group for their sponsorship. Online information includes our mission, history, organization leadership, membership information, archived newsletters, Lunch & Learn programs, workshops, calendar of music events, listing of nonprofit music organizations and listings of private music teachers and accompanists. Educational Opportunities

Last year Rochester Music Guild expanded its educational offerings to include two inaugural events aimed at young musicians, their teachers, and professional musicians and hobbyists. Following the success of these, which were offered in addition to our traditional Lunch and Learn programs, we are continuing to do so in the year ahead. The music guild is delighted to welcome Scott Kruse to the board. He will be working along with Corey Henke in planning and overseeing these events.

Mark your calendars and plan to attend:

Sunday, October 9th, 2-4:30 pm, Gloria Dei Lutheran Church (1212 12th Ave NW), Education Series Event:
 Concert and Workshop with Winona State Faculty Jazz Combo, 2:00-2:45 pm — Free Public Concert
 3:00 – 4:30 pm — Jazz Workshop and Open Jam Session (open to musicians of all ages)

Details at <http://rochestermusicguild.org/education/workshops/>

Further questions, contact Corey Henke at 507-696-2023 or education@rochestermusicguild.org.

Do we have your e-mail address?

If you are not receiving this newsletter by e-mail and would be willing to, please provide a current address. Meanwhile we hope to keep you updated in various areas:

2016-17 area Musical Performances calendar, Reminders of Music Guild Lunch & Learn presentations, news of “late-breaking” musical opportunities, and more!

Please consider including your e-mail address on your membership renewal form or you can send an e-mail update to the guild through communications@rochestermusicguild.org

IBM Matching Grants for RMG

Starting in 2014, the Guild was approved to participate in the IBM Matching Grant Program. If you are an active or retired IBM'er, you can make your membership go further by filling out an IBM Matching Grant form, signing it and returning it along with your membership donation. IBM will match 100% of donations from active IBM employees and 50% of donations from retired IBM employees. RMG would like to thank IBM for the $980 received in 2016 for matched donations to RMG in 2015. IBM matching grant forms received by Nov 30, 2016 will be submitted to IBM and will be paid by IBM in 2017. If you need an IBM matching grant form, send an e-mail to the RMG treasurer, Guy Vig, at treasurer@rochestermusicguild.org Thanks!

Our membership year runs July 1, 2016, through June 30, 2017. The Rochester Music Guild welcomes all people who love music! If you have not yet sent in your membership dues, for the current year, please use this form to join us in nurturing music in the Community.

Rochester Symphony Orchestra & Chorale*A note from Maestro Jere Lantz...*

Our first concert, October 22nd & 23rd, celebrates New York's unique contribution to music in the last century. We're calling it West Side & Rhapsody, after Leonard Bernstein's Symphonic Dances from West Side Story and George Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue. We will also offer a jazzy Salute to the Big Apple and Duke Ellington. Twin Cities piano man Dan Chouinard will schmooze us with his vocal and piano stylings.

On November 19th, the great violin virtuoso Midori Goto will join us to play the Beethoven Violin Concerto, known to many as the greatest concerto for any instrument. We'll warm up the audience with Brahms' Tragic Overture and Variations on a Theme by Haydn. You may recall that Midori had to cancel her performance with us in May 2015 due to illness; we're glad she could schedule us in so soon.

December 17th brings our annual Sounds of the Season concert with our Chorale joining the orchestra. Chorale Director Pat Anderson suggested we offer dramatic vignettes, so Amanda Pyfferoen, Chorale singer and theater talent, is putting together scenes from Dickens' A Christmas Carol, O. Henry's Gift of the Magi, and Valentine Davies' Miracle on 34th Street. Each drama will be surrounded by favorites from its era, giving us an historical as well as heart-tugging holiday experience.

Special note for kids: our opening and closing concerts (October and April) will have special free previews for kids and their families on the Friday evening of their concert weekends. And our November concert featuring Midori will be free to kids 18 and under.

We hope to see you at one or more of the three concerts which open our season as we carry out our new mission: We Bring Great Music to Life.

-Jere Lantz, RSOC Music Director

November Lunch & Learn

World-Renowned Violinist Midori

Friday, November 18, 2016 11:30 am – Lunch 12:00-12:45 pm – FREE program
Christ United Methodist Church (400 5th Avenue SW, Rochester)

The Rochester Music Guild is proud to welcome internationally acclaimed violinist and educator Midori. Midori will present on a topic of her choice and perform on the violin. Midori made her professional debut at the age of 11 with the New York Philharmonic and it's traditional New Year's Eve concert, on which occasion she received a standing ovation and the impetus to begin a major career. Today Midori is recognized as an extraordinary performer, a devoted and gifted educator, and an innovative community engagement activist. In addition to her extensive discography, Midori has performed with major orchestras throughout the world and was named a Messenger of Peace by U.N. Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon in honor of her community activism.

Hosted by Southeastern Minnesota Youth Orchestras (SEMYO) and Rochester Symphony Orchestra and Chorale, Midori will be artist in residence from November 16-20 culminating in solo performances with both ensembles. For more information on Midori's residency please visit <http://semyo.org/>

Herberger's Community Days
November 9-12, 2016

With the arrival of fall the HERBERGER'S COMMUNITY DAYS is just around the corner. This simply fantastic fundraiser is one which any organization like ours could only hope for. First, some history.

Herberger's is a department store, under the Bon Ton conglomerate, that is vitally interested in and supportive of the community it serves. Annually they prepare a coupon book, containing terrific bargains, for this pre-Christmas sale. As the event draws closer, the Guild will mail you an encouraging note, two coupon books, and a directive sheet for you to indicate your wishes—whether you purchase one, both, or neither (DON'T FORGET TO RETURN THEM TO US), or MANY. Every last dollar, from the $5 purchase of each book, goes directly back to the Guild. If we sell 100 books we bank $500. Sometimes people send an additional donation along with, or instead of buying, coupon books. The Guild very much appreciates every penny it gets from every donor. However there is yet another "bonus" in all this!

Herberger's offers a "bonus donation" to participating organizations, which is based on sales receipts for the total sale period. RMG's bonus is based on the percentage of books we sell compared to the total number of books sold by all participating organizations. In other words, THE MORE BOOKS WE SELL, THE BIGGER OUR PIECE OF BONUS PIE.

With the bonus in mind, the Guild has agreed that any donations received will be counted as books "purchased" and those books taken to a nonprofit organization for distribution to lower-income families. This way, we can have a win-win scenario: Herberger's sales are increased, and people choosing to send donations will be enhancing their donation by adding to our bonus.

Mark Your Calendar for Rochester Symphony Orchestra and Chorale (RSOC) programming in the New Year. More information to follow:

February 4 & 5 will feature pianist Andrew Staupé returning to play not one but two virtuoso showpieces by Franz Liszt.

March 11 & 12 bring An Opera Affair with orchestra, chorale and several soloists doing Mozart, Verdi, Wagner, Copland and more of that music that is best at telling a story.

The season closes on April 21 & 22 with Journey Through Space, with a 100th anniversary performance of Holst's The Planets, a 40th birthday offering of John Williams' immortal score from Star Wars, and music of Nielson (Helios Overture) and Debussy (Clair de Lune).
